

GREAT STRIDES ON G. T. P. GRADE

H. J. Fetter says Construction Work will Reach Tote Jaune Cache by Close of Year

4000 MEN WILL BE NEEDED

Forty Cars of Supplies Going out West to Wolf Creek Every Day in Preparation for Great Spring
Activity

Some idea of the tremendous activity which the G. T. P. grade west of Edmonton will see this year is gathered from the interview given to the Capital this morning by H. J.
Fetter, general superintendent of the contracting firm of Foley, Welch & Stewart.

"There is a double header train of forty cars going west on the G. T. P. to Wolf Creek every day in the week," said Mr. Fetter. "The cars are loaded with thousands of bushels of oats, tons of hay, groceries, blasting powder and clothing. This is not so much to supply the present demand as to get all the supplies to the front before the construction work of the spring and summer is under way.

"At present we have 1200 teams and several hundred men concentrating their efforts on the cut between Wolf Creek and Macleod river. This cut is 1200 feet long, and necessitates removing 120,000 cubic yards of earth.
It is very necessary to rush this cut through as the construction of the bridge over the Macleod river is delayed until the steel can be taken across.

Mr. Fetter says that he expects to see the grade constructed 500 feet from Tote Jaune Cache before the fall season.
This point is 120 miles from the Macleod river, and 50 miles beyond the present end of the Yellowhead Pass. He said that there would be between 3-500 and 4,000 men required early in the spring but expressed some fear that the labor market would not be able to supply the camps with all the help required.

"Every man and team of horses that we can get will find plenty of work to do this season," said Mr. Fetter.
Mr. Fetter has just returned from a point sixty miles west of Macleod river which is 180 miles west of Edmonton. He said the winter has been about as good as any that Edmontonians have been enjoying for the past week.

"There is also in Edmonton today Mr. Shirley, of Phenix, and Shirley who have the sub-contract for seventy miles of grading west of the Macleod and C. & E. Rivers, G. T. P. engineer.
Mr. Brent has charge of the final location of the road for the sixty miles west of Macleod. He is rushed at present to get everything in preparation for the grading gangs as the conditions permit.

ACCIDENT TO GOLDWIN SMITH

Fractured his thigh bone last week and his condition causes anxiety

Toronto, Feb. 7.—Word of the indisposition of Mr. Goldwin Smith as a result of an accident sustained last Wednesday morning has caused no little anxiety. Mr. Smith rose on Wednesday morning and while walking across the hall of the "Orange" stripped and fell, fracturing his thigh bone.

Records are Broken

New York, Feb. 7.—One record was equalled and one American indoor record broken at the games of the Irish-American A.C. Saturday night at Madison Square Garden. By agreement with the American A. U. Melvin B.
Shoppard, who is under suspension was permitted to compete. His victory in half mile run will be contested. His time was not a record.
In mile dash J. J. Archer of Irish-American A.C. equalled the world's record of 4:27-1/5 made seven years ago by W. A. Shick, of Harvard.
In the seventy yard low hurdles handicap John J. Eller of Irish-American A.C. made a new world's record from scratch of 8-1/2 seconds, but the race went to W. Barwick of New York A.C. who had a handicap of seven feet.
In four mile race, George V. Bonagay, of Irish American A. C. at scratch, made a new indoor American record of 19 minutes 39-1/2 seconds, beating his own best time of 10 1/2-1/2.
In the two yards relay race, four-minutes team, number one team of Irish-American's made a new world's record of 5:06-1/2, three fifths of a second below the old record.

SECRETARY FOR Y.W.C.A. APPOINTED

Miss Vance of Millbrook Will Arrive this Month—Meeting of Y. W.
C. A. Directors on Saturday

The regular monthly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. board of directors held on Saturday, February 5, in the Y.
W. C. A. parlors was well attended.
In the absence of the president Mrs.
Bellamy, Mrs. R. W. Sharpe, first vice president, was in the chair. The minutes were read by Mrs. T. M. Brown.
Reports of the standing committees were read. The treasurer's report showed that the institution is paying its running expenses. The building fund acknowledged the receipt of the following:

Nurses' Association $10
W. C. T. U., Nanton, Alta 10
Hassan Lodge No. 7 25
Laymen's Missionary Banquet 100
United Farmers of Alberta $53.35
Mrs. J. Macdonald, of Victoria, B.C., formerly of Edmonton 100

The educational committee laid before the meeting the arrangements to carry on shirt waist classes and for starting of the second series of physical and cooking classes.
The travellers' aid reported 87 trains met in Edmonton and fifty people helped, and thirty people making use of the Y. W. C. A. quarters.
Employment agencies showed 32 women and girls applying for positions and 26 women for employees.
The devotional committee was appointed and discussed arrangements for holding Sunday afternoon Bible classes in the Y. M. C. A. and struggles in the afternoon.
A telegram of acceptance from Miss Vance, of Millbrook, Ont., was read in answer to a letter from the Board of Directors offering her the position of secretary. Miss Vance will arrive about February 20th in time to meet the general secretary of Canada, Miss Little, who will visit Edmonton this month.

Death of R. A. Badenach Toronto, Feb. 7.—Mr. R. A. Badenach, one of Toronto's best known insurance man, and a life-long citizen, passed away on Saturday at his home on St. George street, aged 45 years.

WILL FARMERS SIGN CONTRACTS?

W. F. Stevens Thinks 50,000 Hogs can Easily be Secured in Alberta for Government Pork Packing Plant

The campaign, which is expected to result in 50,000 hogs being contracted for by the Alberta farmers for the government pork packing plant opens this evening in Lethbridge.
W. F. Stevens has undertaken to address the farmers at various points in the province to determine the extent to which co-operation among farmers will be effected. Blank contract forms will be freely distributed among the farmers after the meetings. Mr.
Stevens will remain in Lethbridge for three days. On the 11th of February he will meet with the Central Alberta Stock Growers' Association at Stettin, with the Cattle Board of Trade on February 15th. Other places to be visited are Alton, Eberhart, Provost and Olea. Mr. Stevens will be present at the latter place while the show course school in agriculture is in progress there.

Before leaving for Lethbridge Mr.
Stevens expressed to the Capital his belief that the farmers would easily obtain 50,000 hogs which is the required number for the securing of the government packing plant. He had already secured a contract, signed, sealed and delivered, for 100 hogs from the John Barn Grain Co.
"If every one of the 3000 members of the United Farmers of Alberta contract for ten hogs, the required number will be reached," said Mr. Stevens.
"Many of them will sign for a great many more than that."

A SUDDEN DEATH

That of William Scott, a fruit rancher at Balfour, B.C.

Nelson, B. C., Feb. 7.—William Scott, a fruit rancher of Balfour, while preparing to row two ladies across Kootenay Lake yesterday, fell beside the boat and soon after expired of heart disease. Mr. Scott was born in England, and was 64 years of age.
He came to Balfour six months ago from Winnipeg. He leaves a widow, four sons and two daughters, Alex, John and Mrs. Collum, of Winnipeg, and William, Hugh and Mrs. Fred Forrester, of Calgary.

A PROMINENT TORONTO MAN

Death of Stewart Houston, Manager of Massey Hall and Editor of Financial Post

Toronto, Feb. 7.—Mr. Stewart Houston, manager of the Massey Hall, and editor of the Financial Post, died this morning at his home here. He had been ill with typhoid fever but it was thought the crisis had passed.
Mr. Houston was a son of the Rural Dean of Niagara. For some time he has been ill, giving it up for newspaper work, and eventually became manager of Massey hall.

ONE MORE GAS EXPLOSION

Eleven miners killed in Pennsylvania completing unique task's record

Indian, Penn., Feb. 7.—Ten Hagan-arians and one American were killed by a gas explosion Saturday in the Jefferson and Clearfield Coal Co., five miles north of this place. The explosion occurred in a heading where 12 men were working. One of these Andrew Krazee, escaped by crawling a quarter of a mile on his stomach to escape the noxious gases. One Haganarian and men were working in adjoining mines within a radius of three miles and heard the concussion, but paid no heed to it and did not learn of the disaster until they came out on the mines tonight. The foremen who were laying tracks just within a mouth of the mine slope were knocked unconscious by the concussion, but were revived later with little difficulty.
The mine has been known as a gaseous mine and plenty of fire hoses have been maintained.

Wanderers Defeat Shamrocks

Montreal, Feb. 7.—In a national league fixture Saturday night the Wanderers defeated the Shamrocks, 2 to 1. The Shamrocks, who are composed of western players opened up strong, and had Wanderers on the defensive for the first 15 minutes. After that the Wanderers got their bearings, and half time ended 3 to 1 for Wanderers. In the second half it was all Wanderers with occasional brilliant play by the Shamrocks who were away off in the shooting. Benjam Hall lined up with the Shamrocks and played quite clean game. Final score, Wanderers 10, Shamrocks 1.

SETTLERS WILL BE PROTECTED

Cause of Prairie Fires Along Railway Lines will be Investigated by Government in a Test Case

Premier Rutherford confirmed the report, which appeared in the Capital on Saturday, to the effect that the government would enter suit against the railway companies for damages to settlers by reason of prairie fires.
The Premier stated that settlers along the G. T. P. who suffered considerable loss by fire, claim that the fires originated through carelessness of the part of the railway employees.
He said that a test case would be taken into the courts to determine whether the settlers are entitled to redress.

Death of Alexander McInnes

Toronto, Feb. 7.—Alexander McInnes, a brother of the late Senator McInnes, died here on Saturday in his 82nd year. The deceased was partner with the late Senator in the drygoods business in Hamilton for many years.

A Manitoba Armory Burned

Minneapolis, Man., Feb. 7.—Fire early ton, real estate agent, was discovered dead yesterday afternoon at his home No. 4 Parkman avenue. Mr. Stratton was 68 years of age and had been living alone for some years.

TO CAMROSE BY THE G.T.P.

First train over that road reached the "Rose City" on Saturday

MEMBERS OF GOVERNMENT

And Party of Edmontonians Heartily Welcomed—First Branch Guaranteed by Province to be Operated

In an attractive little folder which has been issued by its Board of Trade Camrose is described as the "Town that was born lucky." Few places in the West have made such great progress in so short a time and few are looking with greater confidence to the future. Saturday one more milestone was passed in its career of progress, when the first Grand Trunk Pacific train entered the town. As its passengers, 600 had four members of the Alberta cabinet, a number of G.T.P. officials and some of the business men of Edmonton. The bulk of the citizens has turned out to celebrate the event in a hearty fashion and a very enjoyable reception was tendered the visitors.

Everything possible had been arranged by the G.T.P. for the comfort of those who were fortunate enough to participate in the outing. Supper, which was in charge, and no one could have been more attentive and thoughtful than he. The run over the main line to Toileid was made in excellent time. As is well known the roadbed is in perfect condition. So that the work of construction has been done, few roads of which have been in existence for many years can run their trains as rapidly and with so large a degree of comfort to the passengers as can the G.T.P. at the present time.
At Toileid the Camrose branch commenced. This piece of road has not been ballasted as yet, and it was necessary to slow down over it.

A Drive About Town

On arrival the visitors were driven all about the town and vicinity, and they had an excellent opportunity of stating up, not only the attractiveness of the situation of Camrose but the many natural and other resources which its people are counting upon, to make of it one of the leading centers of the province.

For some years past, it has been a point on the C.P.R. branch line of Edmonton and in the course of few weeks this will become part of the Edmonton-Winnipeg short line.
A cut off is in progress, which will run from Camrose direct to Strathcona.
In addition to the G.T.P. connection from the north, Camrose will have the C.N.R. line to its borders in the near future. The grade of the C.N.R. branch from Vegreville, which will go on to Calgary, is finished beyond the town and the steel will arrive with the opening of the spring. The fact that so many railroads are converging there gives rise to the most confident expectation that the town will become an important distributing centre, and the citizens call attention with no small pride to the sites for warehouses that have recently been selected. A large excavation which is at present being made is for that which the Galt firm proposes to erect. An industry which is already in operation, and which promises to develop to a very considerable extent is a tannery, where they use Alberta willow bark. The tannery also possesses a brick plant, a creamery and a cash and door factory, while a coal mine on the outskirts is of no small advantage to the industries and to the householder.

The Canadian Club

Though luck is said to have entered into the development of the town the visitors saw for themselves that this was not everything. What appealed to them most was the quality of the citizens. A more enterprising and public-spirited lot of men it would be difficult to find. A sure indication of the extent to which these qualities prevail is to be found in the possession of such an institution as the Canadian Club. It is the only organization of its kind in Canada to possess a building of its own. It is hand-somerly fitted up and serves not only to make life very much pleasanter in Camrose than in most towns, three or four times its size, but it also constitutes a center for civic effort, the effect of which is clearly apparent.

FIRST LIST OF NOMINATIONS

Will be Published Wednesday—Do not Delay Getting Into the Contest While it is Young

THE CAPITAL'S $1250 PRIZE CONTEST IS GAINING GROUND DAY BY DAY

A fair number of nominations have been received, every district being represented. There is abundance of room for new nominations. If you do not enter, you lose for a certainty. If you send in your nomination and make an aggressive campaign, the $1250 "Bombardier" may be yours, or the $150 "Bombardier" Nordheimer. At least one of the district prizes should be easy to capture.
Remember that each district is assured a certain number of prizes, and all competitors have an equal chance to win the grand prizes.

It will take but a small portion of anyone's time. Many candidates in other towns where the manager of this contest has conducted similar affairs have not lost an hour from their regular vacation. To win a prize worth $100 would be a very "sweet" reward for anyone. The contest will last but a few weeks. Many are no doubt awaiting until the first publication. This is a mistaken idea. The more candidates in the contest the fewer voters it will take to win, and the ones who get the early start will have the advantage over those who hesitate. The story about the "early bird" applies in this contest, the only difference being that there is room for seventeen "early birds" for there are seventeen valuable prizes.

Enter today—send in your nomination at once—and have a goodly number of votes to your credit when the first standing is published. The list of names will be published for the first time on Wednesday. Be sure your name is among the candidates, and get the benefit that accrues to an early starter. Nomination will be accepted for some time.

Call at the Special Contest Department, Room 5, X-rayed Building, just around the corner from The Capital Office, or phone 245 for information.
For the purpose of the contest and in order to equalize competition, the territory has been divided into four districts, and the contestants in each district will compete among themselves for the district prizes.

District No. 1 comprises all the territory within the city of Edmonton west of First street.

District No. 2 comprises all the territory within the city of Edmonton east of First street.

District No. 3 comprises all the territory within the city of Strathcona.

District No. 4 comprises all the territory outside of the cities of Edmonton and Strathcona.

FULL POLICY OR NOTHING

Mr. Chamberlain will not be Satisfied

NO USE FOR THE WOBBLERS

If in Parliament he will Make an Effort to Displace the Government Within Six Months

London, Feb. 7.—Joseph Chamberlain, on being interviewed, said the final victory would only take a little longer than he had hoped for. Tariff reform lost many votes owing to the successful action of the lords and the wobbling of the local dealers in Scotland and the north of England. He declared tariff reform must remain the main object of the Conservative policy. It was a most popular plank and there was nothing to replace it.
Respecting the suggestion that the policy should be changed or the imperial side displaced in order to get rid of the food taxes, Mr. Chamberlain said there were always wobblers when a great policy was proposed, but there would be fewer wobblers in future. The working classes in many parts were far ahead of their leaders

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN

on tariff reform. "It is no use waiting till you are asked questions about food duties and look as if you were afraid. They are simple to explain and when explained are always understood. I do not think I shall hear much about them next election." "If in parliament," Chamberlain said, "he would try to have the government out in six months." The Unionists aim in respect to the House of Lords should be to strengthen it by reform of its constitution. Finally Mr. Chamberlain again referred to the suggestion to drop the imperial side of the policy, said this was the strongest side, as the working classes always responded to an imperial appeal. "We must have the full policy or nothing," he concluded.

GamesDEACON RETURNS
TO CITY

The Team had a Magnificent Trip and Though Playing Their Hardest Were Beaten by a Better Team

The familiar figure of Deacon White was a welcome addition to the crowd passing along the Ribble, (or, in plain words, Jasper avenue) on Sunday morning.

Deacon says that he had a mighty fine trip, and, though disappointed the boys did not lift the cup, he is satisfied that Ottawa was just a little too fast for his boys. The Edmonton team were treated like princes on every hand and the two defeats did not affect their popularity in the least.

After the team disbanded, Deacon immediately left for his old home in Chicago, where he made quite an extended stay with his father, Rev. Mr. White. It was Deacon's first trip home in eight years and he enjoyed every minute of his stay.

Deacon will have something to make public on the local baseball situation in the course of a few days.

BILLY FIELD
IN WINNIPEG

Edmonton's Point Player Returns to His Home Town—Challengers Lacked Condition

Billy Field, who played with Edmonton on the Stanley Cup games at Ottawa, is back in the city. He says the challengers showed lack of condition and were unable to stand the pace set by the speedy Ottawas. The cupholders have a good team, says Field, Hamby Shore, who played with the Strathcona two years ago, is only fit. Strathcona two years ago, is only fit. Field's place at cover point. He is not as showy a performer as the man who jumped to Renfrew, but is more effective. Roberts, a big husky junior, has proven a decided acquisition on the back. Billy says the Winnipeg boys in the east are all making good. Harney Holden is a particular favorite with the Montreal Shamrocks.

A lot of the big salary talk is pure rumour, according to Field. That reported offer of $1000 to Hay Miller to play one game at Montreal prior to the Stanley cup series, was really $500 offered to Miller and Bonham. Whitecroft is, however, getting $1000 to finish out the season with Renfrew—Winnipeg Free Press.

George McBride, shortstop of the Washington club, has a unique reputation. For two years he has not missed a single game in which his team has participated.

George Henry Smith has nothing on Norman Elberfeld when it comes to playing under the same manager in three different cities. "Heinie" was with Harrow in Patterson and Detroit, and will be this season at Montreal. Elberfeld worked with Chief Staggings in Philadelphia, Detroit, an finally in New York.

Calgary Tigers Give Them a Bad Beating on Friday Night—Deacons will Play Winners

Calgary, Feb. 5.—The Calgary Tigers won from the Saints by a score of six to nil last evening at Sherman's rink. The game was a scheduled league match, and by winning the Tigers have placed themselves within easy reach of the championship.

The game was evened from the score indicated. The Saints in the second half had just as much of the play as the Tigers did. The Tigers made good in defence. Gibson and Melrose made a much better pair than did F. McHugh and Walton. The Saints again showed they lacked shooting ability. Time after time they pretty work they got within shooting distance, but their final efforts were weak.

The Tigers did not open the scoring till twelve minutes after the start. Up till then both teams played fast hockey and the exchanges were very even. After Melrose scored the second Ernie Pincham came back with another in less than half a minute, and then the Saints knew they were beaten.

The game was a good one to watch, and although the ice was lumpy, there were plenty of good points in the game that made it interesting.

Alex McHugh and Art Lowes fought a real duel. They checked each other hard, and the result was about an even break between the two. Tansey, the Saints' guardian, saved a number of good shots. Walton and McHugh had all they could do to watch the speedy Tiger forwards. McHugh was slow and was not in shape for a hard fast game such as the Tigers kept up.

Of the Saints' forwards, Sparrow played a good steady game. McKenzie was there with the sick-handling, but Melrose did not allow him much space to get away.

Powell, Gibson and Melrose made an excellent defence. The Doc was there with the checking stuff, and the Saints found him a real stumbling block. White at rover, played a fair game. He was a good stick-handler, but doesn't like mixing it much. Art Lowes was the best of the Tiger forwards. King checked back well and at times he gave Pincham some good openings. Pincham put in a star game, and worked well with the other forwards.

St. Marys—Goal, Tansey; point, Walton; cover, F. McHugh; rover, Walper, centre, McKenzie; right, McHugh; left, Sparrow.
Officials—G. Cardell and D. Andrews.

Jimma da Jeff Will Tour the World With an All-Star Company Including Corbett and Ketchell

Chicago, Feb. 1.—Guaranteed the lump sum of $50,000 for his share or a salary of $5,000 per week, with 50 per cent of the profits above that amount, Jas. J. Jeffries will start on a ten months' tour of the world at the head of an athletic show on July 8, providing he regains the title of world's champion heavyweight in his meeting with Jack Johnson on July 4th.

This announcement was made last night by H. H. Frazee, who is promoting the present tour of Jeffries.

Accompanying Jeffries on the trip, according to Frazee, will be James J. Braddock, Stanley Ketchel, probably Battling Nelson, Sam Berger, Frank Gotch, Dr. D. F. Koller, and "Farmer" Burns, or some man of similar ability.

Mrs. Jeffries who has been convalescing from an operation in a local hospital, will leave tomorrow for Helena, Montana, to meet her husband.

The Ex-Champion Goes on Record as Slatting the Jeffries-Johnson Mill will be Fixed

Boston, Mass., Feb. 1.—Announcement that he believes the Jeffries-Johnson fight is fixed is made here today by John L. Sullivan who once on a time could go some himself. Sullivan today asserted his views thus:—

"I don't think Jeffries and Johnson are on the level about this match. There is something funny about the whole affair. The black man can win if the bout is on the level.

"I don't think that Jeff could be dragged into a ring with the black man unless there was an arrangement that Johnson would lay down. Now, I never liked to have a white man fight a 'coon' and, while I have to admit it, Johnson looks like a sure bet to me."

JACK WINCHESTER
RETURNS WEST

A Report From Ottawa Says the Peerless Goal Keeper Has Left the Shamrocks

Ottawa, Feb. 1.—Hockey players are commencing to shift again. It was learned in Ottawa this morning that Jack Winchester who came east with Edmonton and signed up with Montreal Shamrocks, after the cup series, has quit the Irishmen and gone west, again.

Tommy Smith, who came down from Haileybury with the team of that place, is going to Brantford, and will likely be accompanied by his brother Harry.

Local reports credit Alec Currie with signing with Haileybury. Currie was dickered with the team on Saturday, and the north country manager wanted him to join the team on a weekly basis. Alec, however, wanted a straight salary for the season in advance, and will likely accept.

PRINCETON WINS
CHAMPIONSHIP

Are Easily the American College Champions, While the New York A. C. Leads the N. Y. Teams

New York, Feb. 5.—Now that Princeton has walked off with the intercollegiate championship, interest in the coming hockey games in New York this season will naturally be more strongly centered about the doings of the teams in the Amateur league. Among the latter the question of superiority is still far from being decided, the schedule being only one-third completed. The New York A. C. combination is leading with a record of three consecutive victories, with the Wanderers Hockey club a close second with the same number of triumphs in four contests. The standing of the teams follows:

| | Won. | Lost. | P.C. |
|---------------|------|-------|-------|
| New York A.C. | 3 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Wanderers | 3 | 1 | .750 |
| St. Nicholas | 1 | 2 | .333 |
| Present A. C. | 1 | 2 | .333 |
| Hockey C. | 0 | 1 | .000 |

Intercollegiate League

| | Won. | Lost. | P.C. |
|-----------|------|-------|-------|
| Princeton | 5 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Harvard | 2 | 1 | .667 |
| Yale | 0 | 1 | .000 |

KERR IN SHAPE AGAIN

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 2.—Albert Kerr, left wing player for the Ottawa hockey team, left the Water street hospital today after being laid up for three weeks as the result of a blow over the eye received in the Ottawa-National game in Montreal. The sight of Kerr's eye has been restored and he will be able to play hockey next week. Kerr will carry a scar all his life. The Ottawa leave Friday morning for Cobalt where they play a National game Saturday night. They will play at Haileybury the following Wednesday, and should they win both will probably be pretty sure of retaining the championship.

Anse Young, After Being Invited to Strathcona as Referee Gets the Key Mitt From Home Team

A very peculiar thing happened in Strathcona on Friday evening when Edmonton High School and Strathcona Collegiate Institute met in the deciding game of the Interscholastic League. The local team invited Anse Young to accompany them as referee. Anse accepted the offer and went over to the Twin City bus, on preparing to go on the ice was astonished to hear that the Strathcona team refused to accept him as an official. When asked for a reason, the only excuse Anse could get was "Oh, you belong to the Deacons." Rather than cause any friction Anse withdrew from the game and another referee was appointed. And as the crowning glory of all the high school boys was the game. Why should Strathcona refuse to allow Anse to referee just because he is interested in the Deacons team? That is a question too deep for us to fathom.

Messrs. Lynn and Kent who "Visited" in Stettler Have Been Sent Home to Strathcona

A meeting of the executive of the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association was held in the Y.M.C.A. Saturday evening with the following delegates in attendance: J. W. Ward, Edmonton; M. E. Carruthers, Lacombe; O. Hays, Lacombe; C. Graham and R. H. Dohson, Seana; J. Lafrance and W. H. Coughingham of Red Deer. Mr. Ward Presided. The business before the meeting was the consideration of Red Deer's protests against Stettler and Lacombe for playing non-resident players.

The Stettler matter was taken up first, and proof being furnished that Lynn and Kent were not residents of Stettler, it was moved and seconded that these two players be suspended. (Carried.) This means that game of January 12th between Stettler and Red Deer is thrown out. It was also decided that all games in which Kent and Lynn participated for Stettler must be replayed.

The protest, Red Deer against Lacombe, regarding the eligibility of Cooke was not decided at Saturday's meeting. The committee ruled that Lacombe had not received sufficient time to prepare their defence.

Red Deer will play Lacombe on Wednesday, the game being subject to the protest not undecided.

Sold Unwarranted Stock

Toronto, Feb. 5.—In yesterday's police Court, Magistrate Kingsford imposed two fines of $100 each on Athol G. Robertson for violation of the companies' act. The specific charge was that of attempting to sell stock in Ontario without giving information required by the companies act. One was that selling the stock of the Nickel Casing Co. without sufficient incorporation. Another case, that of Henshaw Maddock, representing the California Alberta Oil Co., charged with not issuing prospectus in compliance with joint stock companies act, was fined the full amount allowed by law, $200.

RULES and CONDITIONS of the CONTEST

Read Carefully

WHO MAY ENTER THIS GREAT PRIZE CONTEST

Any married or single lady or gentleman, girl or boy, of any age residing in Edmonton or Strathcona, or within the circulation zone of The Daily Capital, Saturday News or Alberta Homestead is eligible to enter the contest. It is not necessary to be a subscriber or even to subscribe for either of the above papers in order to become a candidate.

Candidates may nominate themselves, or may be nominated by their friends.

The Contest Department reserves the right to reject any nomination, without giving any reason therefor, or to change any rule for cause.

No member of employer's family or employee of The Daily Capital, Saturday News or Alberta Homestead, or members of employees' families will be eligible as a candidate.

THE VOTING

The voting will be done by coupons clipped from the Daily Capital, Saturday News and Alberta Homestead and by certificates issued upon the payment of a subscription to the above papers. The coupons will be published in the Daily Capital, Saturday News and Alberta Homestead, and will be good for votes when neatly cut out, name of candidate filled in and brought or mailed to the contest department before the expiry date upon them. Certificates for votes will be issued as per schedule, published elsewhere in this announcement.

Votes cannot be bought, but are issued free when asked for when subscriptions are paid.

Candidates will be allowed to accept subscription money and give temporary receipts therefor. When the money is turned in at the Contest Department, a regular receipt will be given or mailed to the subscriber.

THE DISTRICTS

Each district is separate and distinct in itself, and the vote cast for candidates in one district has no bearing whatever upon the number of votes cast for candidates in other districts, except so far as the grand prizes are concerned. The grand prizes will be awarded to the two candidates receiving the greatest number of votes, irrespective of district. The district prizes will be awarded to the highest voters in each district (not winning a grand prize.) The candidate having the highest vote will be allowed first choice, the one having second highest vote second choice, and so on. Grand Prize winners are not eligible to win a district prize, as no candidate will be allowed to win two prizes.

Candidates may compete from where they reside or where they are employed.

Votes are not transferrable. Candidates may solicit subscriptions in other districts than the one from which they compete, or any place in the postal union.

AWARDING OF PRIZES

At the close of the contest the returns will be counted by a committee of well-known business men from the various districts.

The decision of the Contest Committee in making awards shall be final and conclusive.

All contestants in accepting nomination must agree to the above rules and regulations.

In the event of a tie between two candidates for any of the prizes, the value of such will be equally divided or another prize of equal value added.

WHAT DO YOU DO WHEN YOU ENTER

The first thing to do is to enter your name as a candidate. Then either call or phone the Contest Department for receipt book and supplies. Ask for more than one receipt book if you have friends who will work for you. Then let your friend know that are in the contest and request them to save their votes for you.

HOW TO WIN A VALUABLE PRIZE

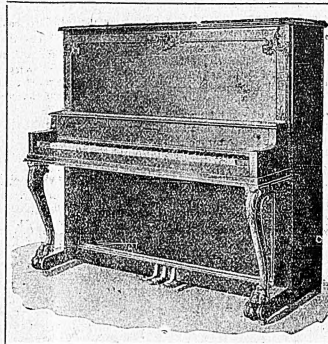

Send in your nomination. You will find a nomination blank at the bottom of this advertisement. The nomination blank is good for 1,000 votes which gives you a fine start.

Then enlist the aid of your friend and neighbors. Let everyone know you are a candidate before they propose to help to a more enterprising candidate.

A LETTER FROM DR. WHITELAW AND A REPLY

To the Editor Daily Capital, Edmonton.

Dear Sir:—
In your Wednesday article, appears an editorial on the isolation hospital, which is so grossly unfair and misleading and so injurious to the cause of public health as to demand a reply. In it a reference is made to an article on the same institution, which appeared in Monday's Capital, a glance at which shows that the so-called reply by the Medical Health Officer was almost wholly a quotation by your reporter from the annual report published three months before.

The local physician's undiscriminate remarks which have apparently furnished a pretext for an attack on the administration of the city isolation hospital, are stated by himself not to have been intended to reflect in the slightest degree on the management or the present usefulness of that institution. He certainly did not intimate that it was unsafe to send patients there, though his remarks have been thus misconstrued by the Capital. This has been the subject of private conversation and that many have been suspicious of the isolation hospital, are statements which are no more well-founded than the gossip indulged in by a few individuals regarding all the other hospitals in the city, which is to be depressed as only suspicious. If the parties who have suspicions would be so well-advised as to make these suspicions known to me, it would become my duty either to disabuse their minds of these suspicions if unfounded, or to rectify matters if there were any just grounds of complaint.

I believe an enquiry as suggested by you will recall the fact that the vast majority of physicians in the city, who do not hesitate to send their patients there, as well as the patients themselves have nothing but words of commendation for the manner in which the work of the institution is carried on by the competent Lady Superintendent and staff of nurses employed. It will also recall the fact that the number of cases of infectious disease in the city is greatly controlled and lessened by the work of this institution. It is regrettable therefore that the columns of the papers under your management, should lend themselves to create prejudice against a hospital which is doing a splendid work in spite of the admitted defects in its construction, thus tending to injure the cause of public health so important to the welfare of the city. Already one of our leading physicians has informed me that when he advised a patient to go to the isolation hospital he was met with refusal on account of mistaken prejudice, due to the articles which have been published. This inquiry will further reveal not only that conditions have for some time been safe and fairly satisfactory, but also that steps have been taken from time to time that the hospital was built to remedy any defects which have appeared in consequence of the faulty foundation and poor material originally used in the construction of the building.

In order that the isolation hospital may serve the city properly it must have the confidence of the citizens and this confidence must be well founded. For this reason I feel it my duty to defend the hospital against any attacks which have a tendency to lessen its usefulness. Thanking you for the valuable space in your paper.

I am yours truly,

T. H. WHITELAW,
Medical Health Officer.

(Ed. Capital.—Before Dr. Whitelaw's communication reached the office this morning, the article which appears on the editorial page of this issue was already in type. But little needs to be added to what is said there. The editorial article of Wednesday, referred to above, was a perfectly fair piece of comment, in fact the only reasonable comment, on that which appeared in the news columns of the Capital on the Monday previous. If there was nothing to find fault with in that which appeared on Monday, it is ridiculous to speak of that which appeared on Wednesday as "grossly unfair and misleading." We lay stress on this because, as is explained on the editorial page today, the person primarily responsible for the Monday article was Dr. Whitelaw himself. He called the attention of a representative of the Capital to Dr. Wilson's remarks and supplied the information which constituted what he now describes as "the so-called reply." After that article was in print, he spoke of it to the member of the Capital staff who was handling the matter and found no fault with it in any particular. If he believed Dr. Wilson's remarks were misinterpreted, surely he would have lost no time in calling attention to the fact. If he did not think that these remarks reflected in the slightest degree on the management or present usefulness of the isolation hospital, why did he consider it advisable to make a reply to them? He now declares that Monday's article was intended as a reply. Well, we have described how it happened to appear, and readers can call it what they like.

Under these circumstances, the Capital naturally resents very strongly the effort which is being made to throw upon it the responsibility of creating prejudice against the isolation hospital. All that is desired is to get at the facts in the interests of public safety. It has made no charges, but, these having been given circulation by others, it intends to use every means in its power to have them sifted thoroughly.

Big Increase in Revenue

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—The total revenue of the Dominion for ten months of the fiscal year ending with January 31 was $81,510,522, as compared with $63,041,215 for the same period last year, an increase of $18,469,307.

The expenditure was $59,678,472 as against $63,041,215, a decrease of $4,362. The increase in the national debt during the ten months was $7,585,890, as compared with $16,652,260 during the corresponding period in the previous fiscal year.

LAST DAYS OF BONSPIEL

Duff and Savage are in Finals for McDougall—Edmonton has Good Chance to Win the Grand Challenge

The keenest excitement attended all the matches played this morning. At the Granite-rink Trimble played Duff. The former played the running game with great effect and won by 12 to 5.

The score by ends:

0 2 0 4 1 1 0 2 0 1—12
0 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 1 0—5

McGuffin, Gaffney, and McLean, Strathcona, played a semi-final game in the Alberta hotel trophy. The Granite skip got an early lead and though McLean scored some big ends he could not overcome his opponents' big margin, McGuffin winning by 14 to 11. The score by ends:

2 1 2 1 1 0 1 2 0 3—19-14
0 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 4—11

The game between McMahon, Strathcona, and Savage, Calgary, attracted a large gallery, and was one of the finest games of the week. McMahon got away with five points before Savage scored but from then on the Calgary skip overtook the lead and, in the seventh end they were all square, 6 all. The last five ends were heart-breaking, first one leading, and then the other. The final score was 13 to 9 in favor of Savage.

The score by ends:

2 1 2 0 1 0 0 3 0 0 0—9 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 3 1 1—2-13

Duff and Savage, the Calgary skips, fought it out for the McDougall trophy, so that piece of silverware is due for a grip soon.

In the Alberta Hotel trophy McGuffin plays the winner of the McMahon-Miller game.

In the consolation, Wilson has reached the semi-finals along with the winner of the Fraser-Slater game. This morning Wilson defeated Miller by 10 to 8.

McGowan goes into the finals of the Grand Challenge by virtue of defeating Telford this morning 10 to 10. In the Brackman-Ker, Fraser, of Capitals, defeated his club-mate Campbell by 12 to 11.

The winner is now in the semi-finals of this competition along with the winner of the Trimble-McGuffin game.

The 11 O'clock Draw

Alberta Trophy
McMahon vs. Miller.
Visitors' Trophy
Savage vs. Trimble.
Consolation
Fraser vs. Slater.

Defamation and Libel

Toronto, Feb. 5.—Henshaw Madock, promoter Alberta Oil Co., is plaintiff in action against W. A. Fraser of Toronto, for $500 damages for defamation and libel. He is also suing the Saturday Night Limited, for $2000 damages for libel and also asking for injunction restraining them from publishing articles reflecting on the alleged dishonesty of his methods of carrying on business.

was tendered in the City building, and was a very enjoyable affair in every respect. The caterer's efforts were of the best, and the short programme of speeches which followed proved a very happy termination to the proceedings.

Mayor Twomey presided and extended a hearty welcome. C. G. Corbett, president of the Board of Trade, in succinct fashion, presented the various claims which Camrose had to the attention of the business world. Scrip- ture had said that without a vision the nation falleth. Camrose never had lacked in this respect.

J. K. Burgess, President of the Canadian Club, extended the welcome of the organization in a bright speech.

The Premier

Premier Rutherford expressed the appreciation of all those participating in the trip, of the cordiality of the welcome which had been proffered there. It was a matter of very great satisfaction to him to be able to take the initial trip over the first line of railroad that had been completed under the guarantee of the provincial government. Before the introduction of the government's policy, he and his colleagues had assured the people of Camrose that they would do everything in their power to see that they secured greater railroad facilities. He thought that with two lines already in the town, the government had been a great deal better than its word.

Attorney-General Cross

Hon. C. W. Cross praised the un- animity of feeling which prevailed among the citizens and stated that a town could not help going ahead under such conditions. Trade rivalry had existed in the past between Edmonton and Calgary, but he thought that the rivalry would now exist between Edmonton and Camrose. As to railroad facilities, he did not think he was betraying any state secret in mentioning the fact that the G.T.P. had intended to place its line four or five miles out from Camrose, but the Premier told them that it was at all possible the entrance to the town had to be made. He said that Edmonton suffered because the charter of the C. and E. provided for construction to a point "at or near Edmonton," and he thought it was a settled policy that railroads must go into well-established towns.

The Hon. Duncan Marshall spoke very briefly and paid a very high tribute to the character of the Camrose citizens, as exemplified throughout the history of the town.

Sir, McLean said he looked to him as if Providence was working a combination with the government and the G.T.P. for building up Camrose. He could give every assurance that the G.T.P. would carry out its part.

Brief speeches by the Hon. P. E. Lessard, John A. McDougall, M.P.P., J. C. Dowsett, president of the Edmonton Board of Trade, R. B. Douglas, president of the Strathcona Board of Trade and F. R. Pike, secretary of the Camrose Board of Trade, brought the proceedings to a close.

Edmonton was reached about eleven o'clock, a short stop was made at To- field, the party taking a five or ten minute walk up town.

A DISCOVERY OF IMPORTANCE

A communication of interest to Alberta from seed branch office

Mr. W. C. McKillop, Alberta representative of the Dominion seed branch, writes:

I have just completed a little experiment; that I believe will be of interest to your readers.

In making germination tests of Turkey Red Winter wheat I have often observed that the result was disappointing, i.e., wheat that looked good and sound would be slower in germinating than one would expect. The opinion is occasionally met that the crop of winter wheat does not do as well when sown again immediately after harvest, as when sown a year or so. To arrive at something definite, the following experiment was conducted. Twenty samples of good-looking sound Turkey Red winter wheat were chosen. These samples were of the crop of 1908 and had been first tested in January 1909 about four months after being harvested. They were from all parts of the province of Alberta and most of them were seed fair prize winners, but when tested for germination they gave rather disappointing results. They have been tested for a year and have now been tested again in January, 1910, about sixteen months after harvest. The results as shown in the accompanying table are most striking.

Without exception they have given a good test in the second trial. The striking part is the rapidity with which they have germinated. In the first test, while a fair percentage ultimately grew, the germination was very slow as indicated by the four day test. In the second test, not only was there a greater percentage germination, but practically every live seed started in the first four days. The fact that every sample out of the twenty gave the same result would indicate that there must be some definite law at the back of this; at the same time I should like to see the test repeated another year before coming to any definite conclusion. Yours faithfully,

W. C. McKILLOP,
Alberta Representative Dominion Seed Branch.

THE MEAT TRUST PROSECUTION

Albany, Feb. 6.—Meat trust officials are now confronted with fine and imprisonment or both, for contempt of court. Attorney-General O'Malley is accumulating evidence that the Armour, Swifts and their associates have for nearly eight years flagrantly defied a New York state supreme court injunction against their fixing prices, preventing competition and otherwise violating the anti-monopoly law. The attorney-general's prosecution of the meat and milk trusts and the activity he is now displaying in running down the legal meat combines warrants the prophecy that very soon a high tribunal will be called upon to say if the latter shall not be punished.

Infliction of a heavy penalty upon the pool that has arbitrarily advanced prices and strangled rural trade, will, it is contended, produce speedier relief for the plundered consumer than any protracted litigation.

It need provide no surprise if within a few days the attorney general asks the supreme court to apply the "big stick" to the combination which since June 2, 1902, has persistently disobeyed an injunction and since December 21 of the same year snuffed its fingers at a final judgment decreed by Supreme Court Justice Chester.

On June 3, 1902, Attorney-General Davis secured an injunction from Justice Chester forbidding Armour & Company and Swift & Company, the Cudahy Packing Company, Schwarzchild and Sulzberger Company, and Nelson Morris & Company from continuing their monopoly of the meat business. Investigation by Attorney-General O'Malley disclosed that this injunction was made permanent December 31, 1905, through a final decision by Justice Chester, that it has ever since been operative and is operative today.

COAST STEAMER IN DIFFICULTY

Vancouver, Feb. 6.—The steamer Amur, arriving this evening from Skagway, delayed three days by storms on the northern B.C. coast, brings the news that the Henriette was all but swamped and sunk last Saturday morning, west of Prince Rupert. The vessel left Rupert on Thursday night and all day Friday had to lay to, in a storm. She was caught in a terrible blow on Friday evening, and being unable to make any headway against the waves, was turned stern on and ran before the wind. Capt. Butler steered for Dixon entrance, was unable to get into shelter until just before noon on Saturday. Waves coming over the side when the steamer lay in the trough of the sea broke the engine-room door, and soon the engineers and firemen were working in three feet of water. Coal plugged the pumping ports and the only way to clear the vessel of water was to hoist it over the side with buckets. Six passengers aboard assisted the crew. Several times the fires were so nearly out and the steam so low that the vessel almost lost headway. Had she stopped altogether she would have foundered. The weather up the coast for ten days has been frightful. The Olympia, Jefferson and Clara, as well as the cable ship Burnside, were all forced to seek shelter.

PLANS FOR EXHIBITION GROUNDS REQUIRED

The Board Offers Prizes for the Best
Set of Plans Submitted

Plans showing the best lay-out of grounds, the location of buildings, main entrance, driveways, walks, etc., may be submitted by anyone to The Edmonton Exhibition Association, Ltd., until February 10th.
Blueprints of the Exhibition Grounds on which are shown the permanent location of the race track and fence and C.N.R. and G.T.P. Railways, also the street railway on the north side of the Board of Trade office. A deposit of $2 is required from anyone taking a blueprint plan as a guarantee of good faith, this amount will be refunded to all submitting plans. A plan however accessible to all will be kept on the wall of the Board of Trade office. It is proposed to request the City Council to extend the Street Railway east up Kinnaird street, thence east to the park.

The following prizes are offered:
For the best plan, $250; second best, $150; third best, $75, which are to become the property of the Exhibition Association. The Association reserves the right not to accept any plan, or if there are not more than three competitors to award only two prizes.
The competitors are purposely given a wide scope to submit plans which will in their opinion be best suited to the grounds and the present and future needs on Exhibition lines of the growing city of Edmonton.

MR. ASQUITH AND HOME RULE

His Reference to the Question in His Speech at the Albert Hall

Now that the Nationalists hold the balance of power at Westminster, the relations between them and the Liberal government take on new interest, and the Premier's Home Rule declaration made at Albert Hall in opening the campaign on December 2 takes on a new significance. Perhaps less attention was paid to it at the time than the importance warranted, and many people have hazy notions as to what he did say. As a matter of fact, his language was as definite as it could be, as the following verbatim report of the session of his speech relating to Ireland shows:

Ireland, on the other hand, from a legislative point of view, may be said by comparison to be once in a way fortunate, because the measures sent up did not come violently against the prejudices and special interests which prevail in the Upper House. The university question, which has baffled British statesmen in the lifetime of a generation, has been settled by Mr. Birrell—(Cheers)—on national lines. The improvement of the Land Act of 1903 has been corrected and supplemented, and a real effort has been set on foot to deal with the social and economic dangers of congestion. Nor is there any part of the United Kingdom which has benefited in so large a degree as Ireland by the oblige pensions. (Cheers.) But is there any man in this crowded hall who is credulous enough to suppose that these measures, and a combination or succession of similar measures, have struck or can strike at the root causes of Irish discontent? Speaking on behalf of the government in March of last year, a week before my accession to the office of Prime Minister, I described Ireland as the one undeniable failure of British statesmanship—(Cheers.) I repeat here tonight what I said then, speaking on behalf of my colleagues and I believe of my party, that the solution of the problem can be found only in one way—(cries of "Home Rule" and loud cheers)—by a policy which, while explicitly safeguarding the supremacy and indefeasible authority of the Imperial parliament, will set up in Ireland a system of full self-government—(loud cheers)—in regard to purely Irish affairs—(Cheers.) There is not, and there cannot be, any question of separation—(More cheers.) There is not, and there cannot be, any question of rival or competing sovereignties. But, subject to those conditions, that is the Liberal policy—(Cheers.) For reasons which I believe to have been adequate, the present parliament was disabled in advance from proposing any such solution, but in the new House of Commons the hands of a Liberal government and of a Liberal majority will in this matter be entirely free—(Cheers.)

BOWDEN SEED FAIR

The seed grain show was held at Bowden, January 27, under rather strenuous conditions, as the poultry meeting and the seed fair were advertised for the same day in the same hall. Four speakers for one afternoon, to the same audience, is, to say the least, a great plenty. The saving feature was that what was said was not all on the same subject. The seed judging was all finished in time for all the speakers to have a say.

The poultry men spoke first, and though cut short for want of time their addresses were interesting to the audience from start to finish. The seed judges have their heaviest work in judging. Bowden was a fair average of what the other seed fairs have been in other places. The biggest showing was in oats, some extra good samples and none thrown out for wild oats. They were remarkably free from other weeds as well, which proved to be true of all other classes as well; demonstrating that the Bowden people either have clean land on which their show grain was raised, or they know how to clean well before bringing it to the fair. The wheat was not quite up to the oats, but some was of very good quality, but slightly mixed with other grains and some smut present in it.

The barley was nearer up to the oats in quality than was the wheat, although but one class it was so close in the score for the prizes that there was much ahead of its competitors.

There was one sample of timothy shown of just medium quality. There was also a sample of black hullless barley shown but not entered for a prize.

Mr. Hutton spoke first of the seed judges, giving reasons for the awards being placed as they were and the benefits of using good seed and of results in general of his work as manager of the Lacombe experimental farm. He also spoke of the good results accruing from the packing of the soil, and the success he had met with in alfalfa growing, all of which were very interesting to the hearers.

Mr. Warner was not feeling very much like talking on account of suffering from a spell of lagrippe, but talked a short time on clean farming at the close of the meeting.

The poultry speakers were Messrs. Foley and Cook; seed fair judges, Messrs. Hutton and Warner.

MAN WHO KNOWS LAURIER BEST

A Sketch of Senator L. O. David of Montreal, his warmest friend

(Special Correspondence to the Toronto Daily Star.)

If you have ever been in Montreal when the good French Canadian people are celebrating the fête of St. Jean Baptiste, you must have seen a little dark man walking quickly yet with a certain little air of dignity beside the archbishop, and just behind the little legion in which the symbols of the fête are transported through the streets. If you were a Liberal you should have taken off your hat to him. If a Conservative you should have turned up your nose, because that little man, the city clerk of Montreal, is not so Sir Wilfrid Laurier's most intimate friend—Laurent Olivier David. He probably is. Incidentally to being a city clerk, he is also a Senator, and when Parliament sits, alternates between keeping track of the births, marriages and deaths of Montreal, and running up to Ottawa. In Ottawa he acts as the Canadian equivalent of a lord, and conspires with the other "lords" in Canada to squelch the aspirations of the commons towards decent government. When hoarse does not do, Senator David slips back to his desk in the Montreal city hall, his literary dabblings, and his hobbies.

There are a great many privileges in the houses of parliament. If you are a member of the chamber with the red carpet, or merely one of the commons herd in the lineolium chamber you are permitted to do many things others can't do without paying. But Senator David has the greatest privilege; he has seen Sir Wilfrid Laurier in disabill, the prime minister of Canada in pajamas and slippers. Not many men may do that; just two in fact; the premier's doctor, and Senator David, the city clerk.

It signifies a great deal to have a privilege like that. It means that you are such a trusted friend of the Leader of the government that he can trust himself to see you before he puts on his outer casing. Outer casings have a great deal to do with kings and princes and prime ministers. If deputations and importuners could only get the ear of the victim before he has settled his tie on, taken the kinks out of his hair, and put on his newly polished boots and his office dignity, they would never be disappointed in the victim's answer. That is why public men are careful to conceal deshabill. That is why it is a proof of the greatness of Senator David that he is allowed to rush into the apartment of the leader at the most unholy hours and talk.

Years Have Brought Honors

Senator David parts his hair on one side and then stretches the hair in hopeful strips right across to the point just above the other ear. At that point the ends are curled nicely upwards in a frazzled row. He is about sixty years of age, but not quite, and he doesn't look even that much. But from the years that have passed him he has wrested many honors. They have given him many experiences that other men have not had. He knew Laurier as a young man. He and Laurier founded the paper L'Opinion Publique. It was he, they say, who helped Laurier write his early speeches. Laurier was quicker in learning English. Laurier had read Thackeray and Macaulay long before the little companion David. Laurier had mastered the pronunciation sooner than little David. But David knew better the game of politics as the French-Canadian people saw it. He knew what they wanted. He knew some of the things that ought to go into Laurier's speeches and he—he and the young slender Frenchman who was in the making then as a great man,—composed them together in a stuffy little office. Year by year Laurier moved on and on, patiently, steadily from the back benches of his party on the wrong side of the house, until he was master of its caucuses and finally the premier of Canada. Laurier became a knight and a friend of the great men of great nations across the sea. Little Senator David went quietly on in the quiet little things he had chosen; he perched with the law; he fooled with politics. He succeeded fairly well. He wrote books in French. He founded the fête of St. Jean Baptiste in Montreal. He made the city clerk. He plucked a Senatorship from the tree. Between these and the new books which he is always writing either of history or the men he has known in politics, he keeps busy. When he has nothing better to do he plans some new thing to do for his city or scatters over to the Chateau de Ramey where the Numismatic Society and the Antiquarian Society meet to ride their hobbies. He rides one, too.

French-Canadian Apostle.

He is the apostle of the French-Canadian. Touch a French-Canadian interest or the interest of the church, which is the great parent of the French, and the little Senator flares like a torch. Propose to interfere with provincial rights, particularly those of Quebec, and he stands up and warns you hotly. It was he who founded the Society of St. Jean Baptiste. He was its first president. He invented the fête. He takes a care in it. It is to remind the French-Canadian little men and women of the brave blood from which they came and the brave deeds that remain like laurels upon the name of their dead. He is sincere and earnest, is this little Senator. He loves his race, and perhaps because he loves it so well he seems to be antagonistic to the English. But he isn't. He is merely a zealous little padre for such of his people who might forget things. It was he who brought about the placing of the statue of Maisonneuve in the Place d'Armes, in Montreal. It was from his mind came the idea of the pageant of St. Jean Baptiste. Other French-Canadians may be inclined to merge themselves in the Saxon race in Saxon manners and Saxon society. Little David is too busy recalling his own people to their own dignity as the fellows of another great race in the making of a great nation, but still as Frenchmen, not English.

Has Written Life of Laurier.

He has written a life of Laurier. He knew Laurier very well when he wrote. He still knows him very well. They say now that once in a while Laurier has to face a problem created by the people of his own blood, a problem that is complicated by the duties which the prime minister owes to the other race and to himself, which is complicated perhaps because some of his own people have still some of the prejudices which he had before he had such a cosmopolitan experience—it is then, they say, that the first minister, the Canadian, who is worthy of imitation alike by English and French, goes to David, or sends for David to talk over with him the French-Canadian side of his problem. Many of these very talks, so the gossip says, takes place in the chamber of the premier. The one man sits in his pajamas and slippers, with the man who chose as his work less glorious politics and the writing of books, and they talk it over.

LACOMBE SEED FAIR

The Lacombe Seed Fair was held January 26, and a good show of seed grain was out. The winter wheat and oats were especially strong, one sample of Alberta Red weighing 69½ lbs. per measured bushel, which is, as far as I have heard, the heaviest yet weighed in the province this year. The fact the wild oats were found in it was much regretted by all parties, for we would have liked very much to have seen it at the provincial show. Several other samples of the same kind of wheat, however, weighed from 67 to 68 lbs. per bushel, proving beyond a doubt that the Lacombe district can produce hard winter wheat of high quality. There was very little doing in spring wheat at the fair, a few samples only were shown, but of fair quality.

The oats were shown in three classes and made a good show in all the classes being large, medium and short. The medium were supplied after judging began to permit of a satisfactory placing of all the grades. There was some very heavy samples in all three classes weighing as heavy as 49½ in some and many 47 to 48 pounds.

There were three lots of timothy which were allotted first second and third. Two lots of rye grass were first and second. In the two exhibits of buckwheat seed, which took first and second, a very noticeable feature was the freedom from weeds. This was the same in all the classes shown, something which speaks well for the district as old as Lacombe and shows that the farmers there are doing some pretty good farming along right lines, to control the weed pest.

There were only two samples thrown out for wild oats, one of wheat and one of oats, and that is a pretty good record for a district so long famed as that of Lacombe.

Judges: D. W. Warner, and E. H. Macleod.

THE STEINWAY

is to-day the only high-grade piano in the United States which is made and controlled by the direct descendants of its original founder.

All the rest have been forced to seek alliance or amalgamation with manufacturers of cheap commercial pianos.

Thus time-honored names have become mere trade-marks, lacking every vestige of individuality. Able to pursue its lofty ideals unfettered by commercial exigencies, the house of Steinway has exerted all its energies in but one direction, with the flattering result that to-day the Steinway is proclaimed everywhere—
